
Statistics 496: MASDS Internship Form

Students who are involved in an internship program may gain 2-4 course credits by enrolling in this course and producing, under the supervision of a faculty member, a substantial paper relating to or arising from the internship. This paper must be separate from the written thesis required for graduation.

Name: _____

Quarter/year : _____

Company: _____

Begin Date: _____

Units: _____

Instructor or Faculty advisor: _____

Description of Internship: Give a brief description of the project that will be worked on and the statistical methodology that will likely be used (e.g., EDA, modern regression).

Please attach an offer letter or copy of an email indicating the Company agreement to host the internship.

Approved by:

Faculty Signature
Department of Statistics & Data Science
University of California, Los Angeles
Master of Applied Statistics & Data Science

Date